

Crisis, Mobility and New Forms of Migration Conference

2-4th September 2014

University College Cork

Keynote Speakers

Dr Sarah Spencer CBE, Senior Fellow, Centre on Migration, Policy and Society, University of Oxford: Regular Services for Irregular Migrants: Unravelling a Policy Paradox across the EU

Dr. Piaras Mac Éinrí, School of Geography & Archaeology, and ISS21, University College Cork: Who Stays? Who Leaves? Retrospects and Prospects

Programme

DAY ONE (Tuesday 2nd September)

Tuesday 2nd September

Registration is open from 12.00 noon in the lobby of the O'Rahilly Building.

Tuesday 2nd September, 1.30-3.30pm

Parallel Session 1a: Migrant Religions in Europe 1 (Chair: Kathy Glavanis)

Venue: ORB G027, O'Rahilly Building

Being Irish, being Muslim; Visibilisation, Islamophobia and the migrant experience? Orla Lynch, University of St Andrews

Religio-cultural identity and social adaptation in the lives of young Muslim women in rural Ireland; Orla McGarry, NUI Galway

Religion, Islamic Family Law, and marriage among Transnational Somalis in Finland; Mulki Al-Sharmani, University of Helsinki

Parallel Session 1b: Migrants, Mouthpieces and Crisis: Problematising Representations of the 'Ideal' Citizen (Chair: Alastair Christie)

Venue: ORB 212, O'Rahilly Building

This multi-disciplinary session will take a 'soapbox and roundtable' format. It draws inspiration from the art work Mouthpiece (Porte Parole; 1996). Mouthpiece is an instrument which honours and supports the complexity of migrant voice(s) and lives, in contrast to 'liberal' societal techniques of detaining non-status migrants, and shaping assimilationist representations of 'good migrants' which restrict their freedom of speech. It was created by Polish born, US based artist Krzysztof Wodiczko (see <http://rhizome.org/editorial/2010/jan/26/porte-parole-mouthpiece-1996-krzysztof-wodiczko-an/>). Speakers include: Tiedong Yang (Office for Integration, Dublin City Council); Nita Mashra (Poet and PhD Candidate UCC); a speaker from the Cork branch of Anti-Deportation Ireland; Smadar Lavie (Visiting Professor, ISS21); Nally Silva and Pablo Rojas Coppari (Migrant Rights Centre of Ireland); Jennifer DeWan (Nasc: Irish Immigrant Support Centre).

3.30-4.00pm Tea/Coffee (Social Area near ORB156, O'Rahilly Building)

Tuesday 2nd September, 4.00-5.30pm

Parallel Session 2a: Emigration and new mobilities from peripheral European countries (Chair: Patrick Crowley)

Venue: ORB 212, O'Rahilly Building

Migrants – a hidden population; Joanna Dybowska, PIN - Instytut Śląski Opole

Transnational human capital, Target countries and migration Traditions: Explaining variances in youth migration from the 'PIIGS'; Irial Glynn, Leiden University

Re-visiting return migration – exploring post-crisis settlement and mobility experiences among Ireland's Celtic Tiger return migrants; David Ralph and Caitríona Ní Laoire, University College Cork

Parallel Session 2b: Migrant Religions in Europe 2 (Chair: Karl Kitching)

Venue: ORB G027, O'Rahilly Building

Identity construction process and lived Islam: an ethnographic study of the Senegalese community in Spain; Rita Sobczyk, University of Granada

Missionizing in reverse: Brazilian migration and new religious cartographies; Olivia Sheringham, University of Oxford

Parallel Session 2c: Asylum-seeking, young people and education (Chair: Alastair Christie)

Venue: ORB 156, O'Rahilly Building

From disempowered asylum seeker to university student; Vera Sheridan, Dublin City University

Compartmentalized childhoods: the multiple and fluid identities of children in refugee and asylum seeking families in the UK; Roda Madziva, University of Nottingham

7.00pm: Dinner in Café Fresco, Glucksman Gallery

DAY TWO

Wednesday September 3rd, 9.00-10.30am

Parallel Session 3a: Transnational Families, Children and New Mobilities 1: Transnational Families and Intergenerational Relating (Chair: Angela Veale)

Venue: ORB212, O'Rahilly Building

Young migrants' experiences of intergenerational and peer relationships across borders: the case of Lithuanians in Ireland; Dovile Vildaite, Trinity College, Dublin

Gender and Inter-generational Transnational Social Mobility Strategies in a Context of Economic Crisis: Latin-american Migration to Spain; Laura Oso, Universidade da Coruña

"Missing link" or "transnational grandparent": exploring experience of migration and grandparenthood among older-generation of Polish migrants in the UK; Sara Bojarczuk, Trinity College, Dublin

Parallel Session 3b: New/old mobilities and youth migration to and from European states at a time of austerity 1 (Chair: Piaras Mac Éinrí) – final details of this session subject to change

Venue: ORB156, O'Rahilly Building

New Mobility of Young Polish Migrants in Public Opinion and Its Mediatized Representations; Mariusz Dzieglewski, Pedagogical University of Cracow

Economic crisis effects on international mobility patterns of young adults in Spain; Pablo Pumares and Elena Marín-Cassinello, University of Almería

Parallel Session 3c: State and EU Responses to and Shapings of Migrations 1: Experiences of social protection and austerity (Chair: Claire Dorrity)

Venue: ORB G027, O'Rahilly Building

Housing Policy and Practice: the impact of migration on an area in Dublin 15; Bríd Ní Chonail

Mechanism for Exclusion? Social Protection Adjustments in post Celtic Tiger Ireland; Elaine Moriarty, Trinity College Dublin

Processes in Exiting Homelessness amongst a Subsample of Migrant Women; Sarah Sheridan, Trinity College Dublin

10.30-11.00am: Coffee/tea (Social Area near ORB156, O’Rahilly Building)

Wednesday September 3rd, 11.00-12.30

Parallel Session 4a: Transnational Families, Children and New Mobilities 2: Transnational Children and Families (Chair: Angela Veale)

Venue: ORB212, O’Rahilly Building

Biculturalism, Social Capital and the Well-Being of Migrant Children; Jennifer Scholtz, Trinity College Dublin

“Nonna lives in Skype”: Children, Intimacy and the Use of Skype Webcam Technology in Transnational Mixed Families in Ireland; Rebecca Chiyoko King-O’Riain, National University of Ireland Maynooth

Transnational Somali Families and Educational Achievement of Their Children: The Case of Finland; Abdirashid Ismail, University of Helsinki

Parallel Session 4b: Vulnerable migrants and human rights (Chair: Smadar Lavie)

Venue: ORB 156, O’Rahilly Building

Vulnerability, the European Court of Human Rights and the Protection of Irregular Migrants in the Social Sphere; Sylvie Da Lomba, University of Strathclyde

Forced migration: the case of Kurds in Turkey; Onder Canveren, Dokuz Eylul University

Aged-out minors in Ireland: Negotiating the transition from State care; Aoife Kathleen Horgan, University College Cork

Parallel Session 4c: State and EU Responses to and Shapings of Migrations 2: Participation - engaging the state and community and voluntary organisations (Chair: Jacqui O’Riordan)

Venue: ORB G027, O’Rahilly Building

The Representation of Asylum Seekers in Ireland: Participation, Negotiation and Alienation; Claire Dorrity, University College Cork

Nonprofit Responses to Irish Reception of International Protection Claimants; Kathleen Sheehan, Trinity College Dublin

Statutory and Community/Voluntary Sectors’ Response to Immigration in Rural Ireland; Shane O’Sullivan

12.30-1.15: Lunch (Main Restaurant)

Wednesday 3rd September, 1.30-2.30pm

Keynote Lecture (Venue: Kane G01, Kane Building)

Regular Services for Irregular Migrants: unravelling a policy paradox across the EU

Dr. Sarah Spencer (Centre on Migration, Policy and Society, University of Oxford)

2.30-3.00: Tea/coffee (Social Area near ORB156, O'Rahilly Building)

Wednesday 3rd September, 3.00-5.00pm

Parallel Session 5a: Transnational Families, Children and New Mobilities 3: Child and Youth Im/Mobility-in-Migration in an Era of Globalization (Chair: Caitríona Ní Laoire)

Venue: ORB212, O'Rahilly Building

Transnational/Indigenous Youth: Learning, Feeling, and Being in Globalized Contexts; Fina Carpena-Méndez, Oregon State University

'I Wish, I Wish...' Reflections on mobility, immobility and the global 'imaginings' of Nigerian Transnational Children; Angela Veale and Camilla Andres, University College Cork

Forced Migration, and Material and Virtual Mobility among Rwandan Children and Young People; Giorgia Donà, University of East London

New Youth Mobilities: Transnational migrations, racialization and global youth culture; Diana Yeh, University of Winchester

Parallel Session 5b: Economic Crisis and Affluent Mobilities (Chair: David Ralph)

Venue: ORB 156, O'Rahilly Building

Mobility, immobility and crisis; Mary Gilmartin and Bettina Migge, NUI Maynooth and University College Dublin

'Who are you calling an immigrant?' How the term is understood by Irish professionals and the implications for researchers; Martina Byrne, Trinity College Dublin

Highly skilled labour mobility within the EU after the 2009 recession: case study of highly skilled Germans working in the UK; Elena Samarsky, University of Oxford

Workplaces, careers and conjunctures: migrant professionals in the construction industry moving through time and space; James Wickham, Alicja Bobek, Sally Daly, Torben Krings, Elaine Moriarty and Justyna Salamońska, Trinity College Dublin

Parallel Session 5c: State and EU Responses to and Shapings of Migrations 3: Migrant wellbeing and the welfare state: issues in health and education practice (Chair: Mike Fitzgibbon)

Venue: ORB G027, O'Rahilly Building

Brain Gain, Brain Waste or Brain down the Drain: Experiences of International Medical Graduates in Ireland; Olaniyi Kolawole, University College Cork

Migrant Children Living in Direct Provision in Ireland: State migration policy as a barrier to their welfare and participation in education; Jacqui O'Riordan, Deirdre Horgan, Shirley Martin and Alastair Christie, University College Cork

An Assessment of Cultural Competence of Community Public Health Nursing; PJ Boyle, HSE Refugee Health Centre

3rd September, Evening:

6.30pm Book Launch and Wine Reception (River Lee Hotel)

Launch of four recently published books by members of the ISS21 Migration and Integration Cluster – all welcome

7.30pm Conference Dinner (River Lee Hotel)

DAY THREE

Thursday 4th September, 9.00-10.30

Parallel Session 6a: New/old mobilities and youth migration to and from European states at a time of austerity 2 (Chair: Piaras Mac Éinrí) – final details of this session subject to change

Venue: ORB 212, O'Rahilly Building

Crisis-influenced mobilities: the re-emergence of 'South'-'North' intra-European labour mobility. Young Southern European adults in the UK; Majella Kilkey and Roxana Barbulescu, University of Sheffield

From the French Suburbs to the Gulf Countries: Analysis of the social trajectories of French North African graduates; Elyamine Settoul, EUI of Florence

Time to move, again: digital practices of Latin Americans in London, Adela Ros (IN3-UOC), Cecilia Gordano (IN3-UOC) and Maria Angel (UCL)

Parallel Session 6b: Diversity, community, migrant families and austerity (Chair: Linda Connolly)

Venue: ORB G027, O'Rahilly Building

Constructing a narrative of austerity and belonging: Migrant families in Manchester; Lucy Mort, Manchester Metropolitan University

'New Irish families' in austerity Ireland: pathways of integration and inclusion of migrant parents and their children; Antje Roeder, Mark Ward and Carmen Frese, Trinity College Dublin

Parallel Session 6c: State and EU Responses to and Shapings of Migrations 4: The effects of immigration policies: citizenship, belonging and exclusion (Chair: Karl Kitching)

Venue: ORB156, O'Rahilly Building

Assessing the long term outcomes for victims of human trafficking in Ireland; Patricia Stapleton, University College Cork

Irish migration polices in relation to the 'contract v charity' model of citizenship; Teresa Buczkowska, University College Dublin

10.30-11.00: Coffee/tea (Social Area near ORB156, O'Rahilly Building)

Thursday 4th September, 11.15-12.15

Keynote Lecture (Venue: Kane G01, Kane Building)

Piarras Mac Éinrí (School of Geography & Archaeology, and ISS21; University College Cork)

Who Stays? Who Leaves? Retrospects and Prospects

12.30-1.30: Lunch (Main Restaurant)

Close of Conference

The ISS21 Migration and Integration Research Cluster would like to acknowledge the support of the UCC Strategic Research Fund for this event.